The Longer You Know Them the Better You Like Them.

Doan's Kidney Pills never fail you. Barre people know this.

Read this Barre case.

Read how Doan's stood the test for many years.

It's local testimony and can be investigated.

Mrs. William Stephens, 78 Maple avenue, Barre, Vt., says: "In 1905 Mr. Stephens gave a testimonial in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills to the effect that his mother had used them and found great relief from backache and kidney trouble. I know that she still thinks well of the remedy and takes it whenever her kidneys trouble her. About two years ago Mr. Stephens also began to be bothered by his back and kidneys. Hard work undoubtedly being the cause of the trouble. He used Doan's Kidney Pills and found them very effective. The completely relieved the pain and lameness in his back and corrected the irregular passages of the kidney secretions. He procured this excellent remedy at E. A. Brown's drug store."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Prudent Congressman.

"Say, doc," said the congressman who was about to be married, "there's a favor I would like to ask of you before this affair proceeds any further."

"Anything I can do for you," replied the preacher, "I will be glad to do, I assure you."

"It's a matter that I have a certain delicacy about mentioning; but I feel that I would be running a big risk and perhaps making a fatal mistake if I let it go. You see, I've had a good deal of experience in the business of framing bills so that they wouldn't mean what they appeared to mean, and it seems to me there ought to be a chance for something of that kind in your line. Here's $50. I intend to slip a 'twenty' to you when the business is done. Now what do you say?"

"I want to ask you, isn't you manage to insert a hoker in the service so that it will not be binding if I happen to find after a while that I'm not satisfied?" (Chicago Record Herald.)

Magazine Review

The Attitude of the Church Toward Poverty.

Ray Standard Baker, writing in the September American Magazine on what he calls "The Faith of the Unchurched" points out, among other things, the difference in the attitude of the church and its organizations towards poverty, and that of the societies and organizations which are independent of the church and cannot be termed religious bodies, towards the same great problem.

"One of the deepest, most complex, most dangerous of the problems of our times is that of poverty. What shall be done for the millions who live along the poverty line or below, who fill the tenements, who recruit the ranks of the unemployed? For a thousand years—always, in fact—the church has been facing the problem of poverty. Amongst the most of the hindrances of church work, and so it continues to be to this day. The church has ever been a mediator between rich and poor; asking of the rich to keep the poor from suffering. And always the church has acquiesced in poverty. It has quoted Scripture, 'the poor ye have always with you,' and it has acted upon that statement by doling out help, here a little, there a little. It has palliated and soothed; the poor have been kept content with the promise that patience in bearing poverty and toil and injustice while other people enjoy unearned wealth and luxury, will win the devout soul the bliss of a distant heaven—after death."

"It will be objected that many churches no longer make these promises of a distant heaven, or utter threats of a hell; but it is a significant fact that those churches which promise and threaten least, the Unitarian and Congregational, for example, are thriving least, while those which still promise and threaten most, the Roman Catholics and the Methodists, for example, are best holding their own."

"And no one, for an instant, would deny that it has been a great and useful and necessary work to comfort the afflicted and help the poor; nor that the church has been diligent at it. But while the church has continued at the negative work of palliation and promise many people outside of the churches have seen a new vision; they have seen a new light; whole groups of men and women are today on fire with the new faith that poverty can be abolished, that in a land which produces more than enough to keep every man, woman and child in comfort, it is absurd that millions should suffer from want at one end of the social ladder while thousands should decay with luxury and superfluity at the other end."

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. What many a farmer feeds his cows for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak" the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

They appeared to mean, and it seems to me there ought to be a chance for something of that kind in your line. Here's $50. I intend to slip a "twenty" to you when the business is done. Now what

I want to ask you, isn't you manage to insert a hoker in the service so that it will not be binding if I happen to find after a while that I'm not satisfied?" (Chicago Record Herald.)
